Title: Beyond Dreams Part 2

BismilLahirRahmaanirRaheem

1. For those that take life easy, and remain in constant supplication, and their hearts remain yearning for the bounties of their Rabb(Allah), then life truly is (like a) dream(, a good dream)

2. For the true seekers of Allah, it’s not so much your physical toil that is important, but moreso your spiritual toil, and how much your heart is connected to the promise of your Rabb(Allah) and how much your heart yearns for, not only the bliss of the next, but also to enter the bliss of this world(as one of the salaf mentioned in regards to attaining the bliss of the next world after entering the bliss of this world)

Wa Allahu A’lam
